

February 2019

On February 28, 2019 WJPA's Program Director, Pete Povich attended the Southpointe Chamber's Business to Business seminar. There were 150 businesses with representatives discussing their business and potentially hiring new employees. This seminar was open to the public and people were encouraged to bring their resumes.